

$1,317,000 BID FOR WEST SCHOOL

The White Construction Company, Inc., of Burlington, was the apparent low bidder, Tuesday night when bids were opened for the construction of the new West School, off Carter Lane.

White bid the sum of $1,317,000. There were eleven other bidders, with prices ranging up to $1,502,000.

Chairman Robert Michelson of the Permanent Building Committee told the bidders that he would announce the award to the successful bidder as soon as possible. The committee is allowed 30 days to study the bids.

Candidates Are in the Hustings

Candidates who appeared before the Wilmington Town Employees meeting, last night, found, with one exception, that they had to draw lots to determine the order of their speaking.

The one exception was Mrs. M. Flora Kasabuski, who explained that she had to return to work. She was allowed to speak first.

Herbert "Ted" Nelson, a candidate for the Housing Authority, was the other candidate to appear.

Glen Connolly spoke first for the School Committee candidates. He is a candidate for re-election. Connolly told his listeners that the School Committee vote is an important one, because the School Committee spends a large portion of the tax dollar.

George Robertie followed Connolly. Mr. Robertie spoke of his previous services on the board.

Mrs. Jeanne Gifford followed Robertie. She was, she said, a willing and hard worker.

Joseph Paglia was the fourth candidate for the School Committee. He told his listeners that if elected he would do his best.

Selectmen

The first candidate to speak for Selectmen was Joseph Sottile. He said that Wilmington had a big asset in its proximity to Boston, the Airport, and the main traffic arteries. He had four points in his platform, (1) An Industrial Committee, to induce industry, and help the tax structure, (2) Re-appraisal of all real estate, (3) Would like to see a Master Zoning Plan and (4) Most important, a study is needed to bring sewerage into the town.

Mrs. Wavie Drew, candidate for re-election was the next. She simply state that in the past she had done what she felt was right for the town, and that in the future she would continue to do what she feels is right for the town.

Felice Vitale said that he was tired of sitting on the other side of the table, and not getting any answers, so he decided to sit on 'this Side' (meaning the candidate's side) and see if he could find any answers. 'I may not have the brains of the others, he said, but (gesturing towards his heart) I've got it here.'

Robert Michelson spoke of his past services to the town, and said that he would like to see a study of the electric light services in the town, to help serve industry and the people. Possibly the town could have its own electric service.

Paul Niles would like, first, to establish a series of priorities for town needs. It is time to establish what to do first, and why. He would like to fit the town needs to the people without driving the people out of town by high taxes. He wants to establish a co-ordination of boards and committees. 'You may not always agree with me,' he said, 'but you'll always know where I stand.'

James Miceli stated that he was not aligned with any other candidate, or group, in town and that he was standing up to offer his services to the town.

John Brooks, a candidate for re-election, spoke at length.

Raymond Fitzmaurice would like to see a team effort in cooperation of boards and committees. He believes a consultant should be hired to produce a Master

Neighbors are assisting to the best of their ability the family of Harold Lee, of Cottage Street, which was burned out by a fire Monday evening. The home was a total loss, and it is understood that there was no insurance.

The principal problem is to find adequate living quarters for Mr and Mrs Lee, their four children and the two adults in the family. They are staying, for the interim with a married daughter, Mrs Mary Costello, also of Cottage Street, but the extra burden makes the Costello home inadequate.

The fire was discovered Monday afternoon, at 5 pm, in the cellar. The fire department believes it started from an overloaded electric circuit.

The fire was believed once to have been extinguished, but it was discovered to be burning again at 8 pm., and this time the house was totally destroyed, in a fire that lasted three hours.

The Tewksbury fire department assisted at the scene, while a truck from Reading stood by in the Wilmington Central Station.

The Lee family, originally from Charlestown, are well known in the Lake area. He has recently been employed in the Traffic Department of the City of Boston.

Plan as to the cost and location of a Town Hall and Library. You've got to know what you are doing, he said. He would like to see a public sewerage program initiated, because the lack of public sewerage has meant a loss of industry in past years to the town. It might be well, he suggested, to put in some each year, and thus keep peak costs down. He would like to have a study made of the traffic flow and parking problem in the center of town, and also improve the appearances of the approaches to the town. Wilmington is a progressive town, he said, and he would like to see it continue as such.

High School Hockey

In a non-league game last night, Wilmington's hockey team, sparked by Pete Emery, defeated Concord-Carlisle by a score of 6-4.

Virtually the whole team saw action, including all three goalies, Hand, DeFelice and O'Connell, who each took one period.

Don Currier started the scoring for Wilmington in the first period, assisted by Lennie Galvin.

Near the middle of the second period, the Wildcats tallied three times in less than two minutes. Pete Emery made an unassisted goal, followed by one by Wayne Hamilton with an assist by Jack Garden. Emery then came on for his second goal, assisted by Jack Garden. Later in the period, Lennie Galvin took a pass from Pete Emery and went in with the fifth Wildcat tally.

Windshield Survey?

Bob Evans, the embattled farmer of North Wilmington, who is now being taxed at about $12,000 a year for his property, had his hopes dashed a bit, two weeks ago, at the Selectmen's meeting.

(The Town Crier was unable to carry the story of the Selectmen's meeting of two weeks ago, for lack of space.)

Mr. Evans appeared at the meeting of February 8th encouraged, he said, because on December 28th the Selectmen appeared to be planning to do something about Ainsworth Road. The property that is now Ainsworth Road was and may still be a part of the property of Mr. Evans. He is being taxed and is also being assessed for the water betterments, for the water main that was laid on his property. He has never been paid for the old railroad right of way and it might be possible to say that Evans owns the water main that the town laid.

Town Manager Bouchard told Evans that the article in the Town Warrant for $11,000 for Ainsworth Road had been dropped, because the town could not afford the $11,000.

To this Evans replied that he could not afford the $12,000 taxes on his farm, either.

'I feel,' he said, 'that the town should fulfill their part of the bargain.'

He said that, after five years (a figure that was later disputed) the middle of the winter was not the time to determine the exact amount of money to be spent. He said that the Town Engineer had gone up to Ainsworth Road, and taken a 'windshield survey' of the area.

Evans made a point of the disposal of the excess fill, in the construction of Ballardvale Street, last year, on land which he gave to the town.

He asked the Town Manager if he would be surprised to know that some of the fill which was supposed to have been given away to save the town the expense of trucking was actually delivered by the town, and to private land. Later, Evans said, the town bulldozer smoothed out that fill.

Bouchard told Evans that he was not aware of this, and then Evans said that he told Bouchard, at an earlier date, where the fill came from, and where it went.

Evans said that Mr. Murphy, a neighbor of Evans, had made a request for the fill, and was in need of it. He didn't get any, according to Evans.

Selectman John Brooks spoke up to say that the town had made an agreement on Ainsworth Road, and it would proceed bit by bit to fulfill that agreement. The Town, Brooks said, would keep no definite schedule.

Evans asked when the town planned to do any of the work.

Brooks, 'as soon as funds or materials are available.'

Evans: In three and a half years, why has none of this been done?

Bender

Selectman Lloyd Bender spoke up to say that it was his opinion that the board should maintain good faith, and that it behooves the board to fulfill their obligation.

Evans then asked the board if it was all right if he paid his taxes 'as quickly as possible'.

To this Brooks answered: It is a law to pay your taxes, but this is an agreement! The town has obligations to meet, but this is timeless!

Bender asked if the board would be agreeable to the scheduling of the work, say over a two-year period. Mrs. Drew agreed to this. Chairman LaRive said he was in agreement with Bender, and felt that the town should come up with something, and that it had no intention of reneging on its agreement.

Bender said that he felt that the board should commend Evans for his patience, and Evans apologized because he had taken up more than the five minutes allotted to him.

Elevator Proposal

The board spent another thirty minutes with George Wilson, of Andover Street, who wants a permit issued to install an elevator at his place of business, to have access to a five room apartment (Page Six)

Letter

Planning Board vote on Zoning Articles

Dear Larz,

The 1965 budget submitted by Mr. Bouchard in regard to salaries in the Library Department makes sad reading. The Head Librarian's maximum salary is $25 over the minimum of a police patrolman; it equals that of a town hall secretary and some of the janitors of the schools!

I am pleading for the future of good library service in Wilmington and all its employees when I suggest that his is an inaccurate assessment of the job involved. Apparently the Library Trustees realize this because they ask a salary increase which the TM refuses. I hope the Trustees will urge the increase at town meeting for the Library's benefit.

The Head Librarian is to the Library Department as the School Superintendent is to the School Department. Both answer to Boards for general policy, but their daily responsibility is enormous. In addition to the physical well-being of the library building, its staff, its contents, and any members of the public while they are in it, there is an intangible but most important responsibility which calls for a Head Librarian to be accountable in great measure for the intellectual welfare of the community served by the library.

Granting there is a difference in the size of the Library and School Departments, and granting that his is Wilmington, not Utopia, I would suggest, if a comparison is to be made for salary purposes, that the job of Head Librarian equals in responsibilities that of a building and teaching principal in the Wilmington school system. In September 1963, the principal of the small Walker School was earning $7,400 a year. That is quite different from the $5,525 maximum for a Head Librarian!

Sincerely,
Evelyn M. Norton

The Planning Board, meeting Tuesday night, approved of two articles, disapproved of two, and voted no action, on the proposed rezoning for the Annual Town Meeting, March 13th.

Approved of the Yentile and Webber articles, to rezone General Business along Main Street and near Cross Street, back to Single Residence 'A'. The land had been rezoned to General Business just a year ago.

Disapproved were the Jackson Brothers and Kilmarnock Street articles. The Jackson proposal is to make a General Business zone at the corner of Woburn and Lowell Street, of the land which is the site of the Gowing-Swain house.

The Kilmarnock Street article, proposed by Attorney Alan Altman, is to create an Industrial Zone, at the end of Kilmarnock Street, and adjacent to the railroad and Route 93.

The Board recommended 'No Action', on the article proposed by Harold Smith, to make a Garden Apartment District on Woburn Street, near Lowell Street.

The Board also voted to have prepared a brochure which is to be sent to all registered voters, before the Town Meeting.

Board of Appeals Decisions

The Board of Appeals, on January 26th, handed down two more decisions on cases heard in the latter part of 1964, leaving four more decisions to be made.

The Fred F. Cain, Inc., garage on Main Street was granted the right to erect signs along the edge of the new car port, recently constructed, as well as on the front of the garage. The case was heard on Oct. 20th, and there were no abuttors or interested parties appearing other than the appellant.

The Socony Mobile Company was denied the right to erect a sign one foot two inches from the edge of Lowell Street, near West St.

The Board held that there was no hardship, in that there was plenty of land available in the new gas station. The case was heard on December 8th, and there were no abuttors or interested parties present other than Socony Mobile representatives.

Selectmen's Meeting*It was supposed to be a story for Valentine's Day

A story written in the Lowell Sun, Sunday, about the Town Manager's latest letter of a month ago, had a strong reaction in the Board of Selectmen's meeting, Monday night.

The story, which had been dragged out of the files, and seemed to be intended to be written in a humorous style, about valentines, and the Town Manager and Board of Selectmen brought a far different reaction.

Selectman Lloyd Bender, who brought up the subject in the first place four weeks ago, and had Selectman John Brooks claim that he was trying to 'gag' the Town Manager, came to Monday's meeting with a prepared letter about the Sunday story in the Sun.

'No Gag or Censure'

In introducing the letter Bender re-iterated that he had not, in any way, intended a 'gag or censure'. The letter, which he read said:

15 February 1965
Dear Mrs. Drew and Gentlemen:

In yesterday's Lowell Sun, a further reference is made to a supposed attempt by me to impose a 'gag rule' on the present Town Manager of Wilmington.

The Lowell Sun on its representatives have elected to interpret my motives on intention as they have, is truly and regrettably their problem, however as the Sun has exposed these interpretations with a by-lined story, I feel that my position must again be made clear.

As stated publicly at the Board of Selectmen's meeting on the 25th of January, it was not my intent to 'gag nor censure' the Town Manager, but simply to insure that a more accurate, factual and responsible reporting to the Town of Wilmington be done. That the Town Manager has chosen to distort, misapply, and misstate information for general dissemination, should be of concern to the Board of Selectmen, and to the people of Wilmington. In reference to the 'Managers' newsletter, I would cite the following:

A reference to the costs of the citizens group protest of the Towns present assessment methods by the Manager as being approximately $8,000, when in fact the costs were 'approximately' $4,375.36, according to the records of the Town Accountant.

A reference by the manager, attributing the recent recreational improvements to the Town Park, to the Board of Selectmen, when in fact, these recommendations were presented by me at a public Board of Selectmen's meeting, with full credit going to Officer Charles Dolan of the Wilmington Police Force.

These inaccuracies, compounded by the newsletter preparation being accomplished by the manager with outside printing, addressing and folding when facilities for these acts were available within the Town Hall seemed somewhat strange to me.

These, plus a history of discourtesy to the board, with appointments to other Boards and Committees of the Town without any prior mention to the Board of Selectmen, indicate to me the need of a better coordination of the responsible leadership of public information. Perhaps the old saw, that suggests 'no one of us is as strong as all of us' would apply.

It was for the reasons stated above that I made my motion, and further as I stated in my reply to a fellow member of the Board of Selectmen, 'I do not want a marionette as manager, however, I do want a responsible, responsive management.'

Lloyd C. Bender
The to be expected reaction was not long in coming.

TM Jerry Bouchard immediately countered that he did not intend to have either Mr. Bender or the Board of Selectmen writing his speeches, or 'what I have to say in public'.

'I think it is incredible,' he said, 'that someone should suggest this!'

Bender asked Bouchard if the Town Crier had quoted him correctly, in the issue which reported that the TM said he was not going to pay any attention to the board's decision. Bouchard said he had not read the article.

Selectman Brooks interrupted, to call a point of order.

The Selectmen had been asked to listen to a letter by Mr. Bender Brooks said, and not an inquisition of the Town Manager!

Bender countered that he was a member of the Board of Selectmen, and was entitled to his say.

Again Brooks called a point of order, and Chairman LaRive ruled that Bender had proposed to read the letter, and that if he wanted to go on he should do it under another heading.

Bender replied that his had come in under the heading of New Business, that the Chairman had asked him for any 'New Business'.

He started to quote Chapters 12B & E, and 12J, of the Town Manager Act, but he did not get a chance to finish.

But, he said, the Lowell Sun in that story, was factually incorrect.

Package Stores

The Board was informed by the Alcoholic Beverages Commission that the sale of alcoholic beverages would be allowed on Washington's Birthday, from 1 pm to 11 pm.

Ipswich River Dredging

TM Bouchard transmitted a copy of correspondence with the Waterways Division of the Department of Public Works, relative to the project of dredging the Ipswich River. Money was voted four years ago for this project, which has been inactive ever since, pending decisions by the Waterways Division.

The correspondence told the Selectmen that communities downstream had different opinions on the subject of the proposed dredging.

Reading, it was said, was afraid that the water table in that town would be affected, with adverse effects on its water supply.

Bouchard told the Selectmen that in the future the town will have reached a point where dredging will be necessary.

Bender asked if any other solution had been sought. He suggested trying to find a solution in which other communities might not be involved.

Discover the difference in the '65 Chevrolets

(As different from other cars as they are from each other)

CHEVROLET—As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built.

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the windows have been curved to give you more hip and shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward slightly and the transmission hump has been narrowed to give you more leg and foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides and is powered, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car—except bigger monthly payments?

CHEVELLE—The most popular intermediate-sized car you can buy.

Of all the cars its size, Chevelle is the biggest seller. Why? Because it has a smooth Full Coil suspension ride. Because most models come with thick deep-tinted tinting, wall to wall, and many come with all-vinyl interiors; and all are available with up to a 326-hp Turbo-Fire V-8 that's just Grrrrrrrr!

CORVAIR—The only rear engine American car made.

You should read what the automotive enthusiast magazines say about the '65 Corvair. They're wild about its ride. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that can touch its styling. They say if you haven't driven a new Corvair Corsa with a 180-hp Six Turbocharged, you just don't know what you're missing.

CHEVY II—As economical a car as you can own, but...

But these rust-resistant rocker panels, that battery-saving Delcotron generator, those self-adjusting brakes, that long-life exhaust system and those smooth dependable engines have never been placed in more beautiful surroundings. Come see what some very expensive-looking styling changes and yards of luxurious upholstery can do.

CORVETTE—The only true sports car America makes.

Now everybody claims to have a "true" sports car. But other dealers can't say they have one available with a fuel-injected V-8, as Corvette does. They can't say they have one with 4-wheel disc brakes or with 4-wheel independent suspension, as Corvette does. They can't say they have one with a clear conscience.

Drive something really new—discover the difference at your Chevrolet dealer's which he has built over the show-room.

Building Inspector, Minot Anderson, was called in. He said that he had refused the elevator permit because of the private residential elevator code. This was not a single residential building, Anderson said, and the law gives Mr. Wilson the right to go to the Board of Appeals.

Wilson reported that he was told by the State to go to the Board of Selectmen and the Town Manager. He was further told that there were twenty-five such elevators in the state.

Anderson said that he had asked for a definition of a single residential building. This structure, he said, takes in the whole building and is a commercial business.

Selectman Bender stated he was convinced that his was a case of definitions. He also said that a Doctors certificate had been issued to preclude the use of stairs. John Brooks asked Anderson if the Board of Appeals said 'single residence' instead of 'private dwelling' would this be acceptable? Anderson said No to this. It is not a residential building, it is a commercial building.

Wilson told the Board that his was a single residence elevator and could only go into single residence homes. He did not have the time to go before the Board of Appeals because he has sold his house on Marie Drive and has to be out by the 10th of March. It takes the Board of Appeals three weeks to reach a decision.

After more debate and questions Chairman LaRivee asked the Board if they wished him to get in touch with the Board of Appeals to see how long it would take them to reach a decision. He also asked that a motion be made.

Selectman Bender moved 'a recommendation to the Board of Appeals from the Board of Selectmen be made, that due to extenuating circumstances, a variance be granted to Mr. Wilson by the Board of Appeals.' It was seconded by John Brooks.

Treasurer-Collector

TM Bouchard reported on the committee which has reviewed 58 applications and interviewed 8 or 9 applicants for the position of Treasurer-Collector.

The committee had carefully reviewed the individual requirements, and had found that the salary requirements exceeded the levels of present department heads and presented a problem.

Bouchard said that Mrs. Denault would continue as temporary treasurer until such times as working conditions could be improved.

A committee member stated that they had thought of hiring a man but felt that the job environment was questionable and wondered if they could get full usefulness out of him. He pointed out that essentially, the individual will ask about the salary and also what is in the future for him when looking for a job of this type. If you want to get someone qualified for this, you have to pay the money.

TM Bouchard said that this, perhaps, suggests a very thorough examination of department head salaries. The interim solution is to retain Mrs. Denault as assistant treasurer. The TM was asked if Mrs. Denault could carry the two jobs. Bouchard answered that it has worked out reasonably well in the last couple of months.

A lot depended, it was pointed out, on how the Town voted on the new Town Hall at the Annual Town Meeting.

The President had the greasiest Hands

The Eagle Can Company, of Somerville and Concord Street, is in the process of moving its entire plant into its new Wilmington home. The Town Crier paid a short visit, Tuesday afternoon, to see how things were going on.

It was a case of walking in the side door, and walking around all sorts of machinery looking for someone in authority. There were about 30 young fellows on the floor, busy punching out steel for tin cans, and forming them on the machines into the finished product. There didn't seem to be any boss.

A trip up a flight of stairs led into the front office. No one was there. There were no desks or furniture of any kind. Telephones were just sitting on the floor.

Back on the main floor a man finally came up who was a boss. His name was Joe Brangiforte, and he lives in Milton. He was a very pleasant chap, and offered to show the visitor around.

Joe volunteered that there were already quite a few people working for Eagle Can who had joined since the firm started the move to Wilmington, and he mentioned George Gray and George Blair as two, along with people from North Reading and Lowell. The whole plant would be in Wilmington in a couple of weeks, he said.

Joe apologized that there was nothing in the front office yet, some delay that he didn't specify, and showed the cafeteria, etc., which is below the main office.

He was asked if either of the Scarpa brothers were in the plant, the men who are the owners. He thought that President John might be, and led the way over to where some men were setting up heavy presses.

That was where the President was. He was setting up that machinery. And, let it be noted, he had more grease on his hands than any of his employees!

Bouchard told Bender that co-operation would be needed all the way down the river, and John Brooks moved that the Town Manager be instructed to investigate the question further and see if other alternatives were available.

Licenses

A private livery license was granted to Linwood Wentzell of Burnap Street. Town Counsel, Philip Buzzell, had been consulted on the matter, and had reported that the board had the authority to issue such a license. Mr. Wentzell operates a delivery service. Common victualler's licenses were granted to Richard O'Connell for O'Kies Lunch, 416 Main Street, and the Wilmington Plaza Drugstore, at Wilmington Plaza.

Police Recognition

Selectman Bender, praising the Police Officers who had taken part in the capture of suspected bandits, a week ago, and calling their conduct of the business 'exemplary' moved that there should be a recognition of the officers, because of the many times their work goes unnoticed by the town.

He moved, and it was voted:

'That a letter of commendation be sent to Chief Paul J. Lynch, Sergeant George Sheppard, Officer Shelley and Cuoco, in recognition of their exemplary service performed on the night of February 9, 1965. Further, that a special individual letter of commendation be sent Officer Daniel Ballou for his courage, alertness, and high degree of professional skill with which he performed his duties on the night of February 9, 1965.'

'That a letter of congratulations be sent to the Tewksbury Board of Selectmen and Police Department on the excellent cooperation and co-ordination demonstrated by the Tewksbury Police Department with the Wilmington Police Department on the night of February 9, 1965.

At the end of their session the board went into an executive session, presumably to continue their conversations about the Town Manager's letter.
